Aurcana Announces Settlement of Class Action

Vancouver, BC, February 10, 2015 - Aurcana Corporation ("Aurcana" or the "Company") (TSXV: AUN, OTCQX: AUNFD) announces that it has entered into an agreement (the "Settlement Agreement") to settle the class action litigation commenced by Nunzio Cardillo and John Wituluk in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (the "Action") against the Company and two former executives of the Company (the "Settlement").

The Settlement provides for the full and final settlement, release and dismissal of all claims brought under the Action. The Settlement is subject to customary conditions, including the receipt of court approval of the Settlement.

Under the terms of the Settlement, the Company will pay an aggregate of $4,000,000 (the "Settlement Amount"), which amount, net of legal fees and other costs, will be divided among members of the plaintiff class on a pro rata basis. The Settlement Amount will be fully funded by insurance maintained by the Company, and the Company does not anticipate that the payment of the Settlement Amount will have any effect on the Company's cash position or operations.

The Company elected to enter into the Settlement in order to avoid the expense, burden and inconvenience associated with the continuance of the Action. The Settlement does not constitute an admission by the Company of any violation of law or other wrongdoing.

Kevin Drover, the Company's President and CEO, states "We are pleased that a settlement of the class action litigation has been reached and will not have an impact on Aurcana's cash position. The Company remains fully focused on continuing to improve the operation and profitability of the La Negra mine".

About Aurcana Corporation

Aurcana Corporation is a primary silver producing company with two properties: the La Negra Mine in Mexico and the Shafter Silver Project in Texas, US. The latter was put on care and maintenance in December 2013, in part due to depressed silver prices. The Company is developing new mining plans for both properties as it continues to work to improve margins and shareholder value.
